

Agreement of Cooperation

Why do you need a group Agreement of Cooperation (AC)?

- The Group AC is the contract you make with your teammates
- It tells you how to behave in the group, and how to work
 - Meetings
 - Accountability
 - Respect
 - ...
- Signing the AC should be a prerequisite for joining the group

Contents of the group Agreement of Cooperation (AC)?

- The group AC forms the basis of your cooperation
- It should contain:
 - The goals and vision of the group
 - The rules for behaviour
 - The rules for collaboration
 - Optionally role assignment dispositions (project manager, chairman, secretary)
 - Anything else you feel forms the heart of the group's teamwork

Exercise: Finish the AC

- Discuss in the group: What is the basis of your teamwork?
 - What is your vision and goals?
 - Which rules do you need in your team?
- Finish your Agreement of Cooperation that everyone can agree to
- Send it to me for comments (tg@iha.dk) Thursday 11th September 2014 before 23:59:59
 - Subject: “ETCCCP: Group {AAD1|AAD2|DSP1}: AC”